

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2924 - SB 3229

March 17, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Removes much of the authority of the Department of Human Services to report persons with delinquent child support to credit bureaus and to require work plans. Deletes the department's authority to revoke licenses of those persons delinquent in support payments and does not allow for administrative income assignments with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Other Fiscal Impact: Jeopardizes the receipt of $218,000,000 in federal Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) funding.

The bill eliminates parts of state law that are required to conform with Federal requirements for receiving Temporary Assistance to Needy Families funding. Total Federal funding for TANF in fiscal year 2001 is estimated at $218,000,000.
